

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

Based on the results of research that were achieved at English Village of Parit baru, it may be concluded as follows:

1. Students' interest in participating Studi Independen Program of English Village of Parit Baru, 86,05% of students answers interested in participating Studi Independen Program of English Village of Parit Baru primarily based on respondents' answers, and only 13,95% of respondents' answers not interest in participating Studi Independen Program of English Village of Parit Baru. Based on these results, the level of student interest in participating in the Studi Independen Program falls into the very high level category, with these results, it is very important to be maintained and developed again from students and teachers as educators, because in reality English subjects are needed and guide students when they want to continue to a higher level.
2. Factors that influence students interest in participating Studi Independen Program of English Village of Parit Baru are internal factor and external factor. Internal factor are health, intelligence talent, and attention. External factors are family, teacher, and community. Factors that influence interest in learning have impact for students in improving their interest in learning, while they are at school or within the surrounding environment. therefore, it is desires to pay attention those factors so that no longer to have an effect on students' interest in accomplishing everything.

B. Suggestions

Based on what was obtained from the result of the study, the researcher gave the following suggestions:

1. For the teacher

These suggestions are very important for English teachers, especially for English teachers in English Village of Parit Baru. Teachers should learn better and be more creative in applying learning strategies, especially in increasing students' interest in learning English. How teachers should make students more enthusiastic, and pay more attention during the learning process, is used to increase students' interest in participating in the Studi Independen Program.

2. For the students

Students are strongly advised to always increase their interest in learning English. Learning English will be easier if students are interested in learning it. What is even more important is that learning English requires a lot of practice. And always try to improve yourself, and how to learn to appreciate English lessons to get satisfactory learning results and success in mastering English lessons.

3. For English Village of Parit Baru

The English Village of Parit Baru should Improve Program quality and relevance by Ensuring that the Independent Study Program offers a rewarding and relevant experience for students. Conducting periodic updates in program content, teaching methods, and learning materials to meet students' needs and deliver an engaging and valuable learning experience.