Abstrak

Keadaan perekonomian yang dialami masyarakat Desa Sungai Nyirih pada waktu pandemi tidak separah yang dialami masyarakat yang tinggal di kota, masalah ekonomi yang dialami masyarakat di Desa Sungai Nyirih hanya kesulitan untuk menjual ikan keluar daerah serta kenaikan bahan bakar. Hasil penelitian menunjukkan bahwa: 1) kondisi ekonomi masyarakat nelayan di Desa Sungai Nyirih selama masa pandemi Covid-19 tidak terlalu memburuk dari sebelum terjadinya pandemi Covid-19 2) permasalahan yang mereka hadapi selama pandemi Covid-19 penurunan harga ikan yang disebabkan penumpukan ikan hal tersebut terjadi karena pemerintah menerapkan social distancing dan kenaikan bahan bakar untuk melaut 3) kebanyakan dari mereka tidak memiliki pekerjaan sampingan.

Kata kunci: kondisi ekonomi, upaya masyarakat, mengatasi perekonomian pada masa Covid-19.

Abstract

The economic situation experienced by the people of Sungai Nyirih Village during the pandemic was not as bad as that experienced by people living in the city, the economic problems experienced by the people in Sungai Nyirih Village were only having difficulty selling fish outside the area and increasing fuel prices. The results showed that: 1) the economic conditions of the fishing communities in Sungai Nyirih Village during the Covid-19 pandemic were not too bad from before the Covid-19 pandemic 2) the problems they faced during the Covid-19 pandemic decreased fish prices due to fish accumulation. This happened because the government implemented social distancing and increased fuel for fishing 3) most of them did not have side jobs.
